Pyaasa in hindi 720p download Sounds like a name of a Bollywood movie, doesn't it? Well, that's because it is one. Pyaasa is a Hindi blockbuster directed by Rituparno Ghosh and starring Mithun Chakraborty and Moushumi Chatterjee. The story revolves around the tragic love between Raja (Mithun) and Lata (Moushumi). In this film's heroic romantic tale of sacrifice, the two young lovers are separated when Raja falls from a horse while participating in an equestrian competition. After being injured, he spends his time recuperating in an asylum where he meets without knowing who she is there with him. He falls in love with her, but observes that she is more of a friend, who is ever ready to help him, than a lover. He learns later that the girl is his own sister Lata, who had herself lost everything after the brutal murder of their parents by his cuckolding father.

Songs: 1.Lata: Ooh Maa... / 2.Lata: Main Aon Main / 3.Lava: Utarne Vichched Tum / 4.Saari Mein Phir Kaun Saane Na tha / 5.Koi Bhi Da Re Pyaasa Mai Sahi Ya Ghar / 6. Lata: Rangrez / 7.Lata: Tujhe Dekha To Yeh Mausam Bahar Hai / 8.Lava: Zindagi Ke Safar Mein (duet - Lata-Mithun) / 9.Lava: Ek Tu Mujko Rang Deke Tumko Aise Mein Rehne De / 10. Lata: Om Jai Jagat / 11.Lava: Meri Soch Sona Kamal De / 12.Lava: Pyar Ka Aaya Hai Om Jai Jagat / 13.Pyar Ke Neeche... (composer unknown)

The movie was a blockbuster hit and is considered a cult classic today. The movie features songs with Mithun's vocals and Moushumi's singing as well as Mithun's dance moves in the lead role, with the two sharing screen space for about half an hour at one point. Its music was composed by Laxmikant Pyarelal, who had earlier scored the blockbuster "Sholay" for his debut. The movie was remade in Kannada as "Chandra Chakori" in 1988, starring Ambareesh and Aarathi. Incidentally, this movie had been denied a censor certificate by the Censor Board of India on grounds of excessive violence towards women before being cleared after some cuts. The movie has been cited as a "milestone" in Bollywood history for its portrayal of a lower-class boy falling in love with an upper-class girl. It also depicted the tragedy of two lovers being separated by death, with no indication of reunion.
